

things never look the same after an eye injury

The Children's Hospital at Westmead has seen an alarming rise in the number of eye injuries over the last decade. An eye injury can happen in a split second and change the way your child sees their future.

Eye injuries are preventable and the key is supervising your child, especially in and around the home.

