

the children's hospital at Westmead

beautiful and precious

play it safe and look after your eyes

Most eye injuries happen in the home. There are permanent effects in most injured eyes. Eye injuries have dramatically increased over the last 10 years. Boys aged between 3-9 are most at risk, although eye injuries can happen to any child.

Prevention is the best medicine and proper supervision is the best prevention.

the children's hospital at Westmead

